Subj.: MONTHLY REPORT for APRIL 2010

Date: MAY 3, 2010

The following is a synopsis of some of the activities of the Isle of Palms Police Department during the month of April 2010.

Patrol

April 3, 2010 A married couple arrived at the Public Safety Building in separate vehicles to report a domestic dispute at their Forest Trail residence. The male subject was injured to the degree that he needed immediate medical assistance from fire department personnel. After officers met with each party separately the female subject was taken into custody charged with Criminal Domestic Violence. Officers returned to the residence and processed the room where the assault took place. The victim was transported to the hospital for treatment.

April 4, 2010 Just after midnight, an officer on patrol observed a vehicle driving down Ocean Boulevard with a large cardboard box on the hood. The officer stopped the vehicle to investigate and the officer determined that the female driver was wanted by the Charleston County Sheriff's Office for Possession of Cocaine. The subject was taken into custody. After being handcuffed the subject became unruly by yelling profanities and attempted to avoid getting into a police vehicle. She was charged with Hindering an Officer and was transported to the Charleston County Detention Center.

April 5, 2010 Officers responded to a residence on Sandpiper Court regarding a domestic dispute at that location. The female resident had locked herself in a bedroom because her estranged husband had arrived at the residence. The female had told her husband that the police had been called and he met the officers outside when they arrived. The female was escorted to her vehicle with her belongings without further incident.

April 6, 2010 Officers responded to the Front Beach near the County Park where several 911 calls reported a male subject with a handgun. Officers stayed in the area until it was determined that the suspect in question had left the area. A few minutes later officers received a call that the person with the gun was cruising the Front Beach in a vehicle then an additional call that reported gunshots in the Municipal Parking Lot. A vehicle believed to have been involved in the previous incidents was stopped on the Connector, but no weapon was located after the officer received consent to search that vehicle. An Investigator later returned to the parking lot and located 9mm shell casings.

April 7, 2010 Officers responded to a residence on 23rd Avenue where a family member reported that his son had threatened to commit suicide. The officers were able to convince the subject to seek immediate medical assistance. The subject refused EMS transportation but agreed to allow the officer to drive the subject to East Cooper Medical Center, where his parents met him to arrange for a psychological evaluation.

April 9, 2010 Just after 3:30 A.M., an officer on patrol in the parking lot of the Kangaroo Express went inside to check on the welfare of the clerk, who was not visible in the store from the parking lot. The officer located the clerk in the back room. While exiting the store the officer encountered a young looking male subject who appeared to be under the influence of alcohol. The officer asked him if he had been drinking and he denied that he had. Due to the subjects condition and young age he was taken into custody and found to be in possession of his older brothers drivers license. The subject was identified as being 17 years old and was administered a Datamaster Test that registered a .20% level of alcohol. The subject was charged with Underage Consumption of Alcohol and Unlawful Use of Another's DL and released to the custody of a responsible friend of the family.

April 9, 2010 An officer on patrol observed several teenagers standing at a vehicle parked on Palm Boulevard near 34th Avenue with one subject holding a can of beer. The officer stopped to speak with the subject and requested that he pour the beer out. The subject dropped the beer and ran away toward the beach. Two of the subject's companions were detained briefly and the officer determined that the subject was staying at a rental several blocks away. Officers went to that residence and waited outside for the subject to return. When the subject returned he was charged with Minor in Possession of Beer, No Alcohol on Streets, and Hindering.

April 12, 2010 At the request of management, officers on foot patrol at Grand Pavilion in Wild Dunes encountered several subjects on the boardwalk in possession of alcohol. Two female teenagers were identified and charged with Underage Possession of Beer.

April 13, 2010 A Sullivan's Island police officer requested assistance with a combative male subject who was attempting to kick out the windows of the officer's police vehicle after being placed under arrest. Since Isle of Palms police vehicles are equipped with window bars, the subject was transferred to our police vehicle for transport to the Detention Center.

April 14, 2010 The Principal of Sullivan's Island Elementary School notified the Isle of Palms Police Department that two 5th grade female students had reported to her that a suspicious male subject stopped to ask them if they needed a ride after they had waved to the subject, while playing in the street on Forest Trail. They provided a description of the subject and the vehicle. The school district then made reverse 911 telephone notification to the parents of all Isle of Palms parents. An Investigator has met with the children and their parents and all efforts are being utilized to locate the vehicle to identify the suspect.

April 17, 2010 Officers responded to the parking lot of the local supermarket where an assault had been reported. A citizen reportedly assaulted a male subject for parking his vehicle in a handicapped parking spot. The victim did not wish to pursue charges.

April 18, 2010 Officers responded to a residence on Ocean Boulevard just after midnight for a complaint of noise at that location. The officer's observed many people, to be significantly below the age of 21, consuming alcohol in their presence. Upon the officer's announcement to gather up in one area many persons present on the property ran into the house from the yard to avoid contact with the officer's. A total of 16 persons present were underage to consume alcohol, with one over 21 who assumed responsibility for purchasing the alcohol. The 16 were charged with Underage Possession of Beer, and the other subject with Transfer of Liquor to Minors. All of the alcohol was photographed then destroyed. A representative of the rental company responded to the residence and since all were leaving by 10 A.M. they were allowed to stay in the residence until then.

April 18, 2010 Just after 2 A.M., an officer on patrol of the Connector observed a vehicle traveling over 70 miles per hour swerve almost losing control when the officers blue lights were activated. While speaking to the driver the officer immediately detected a strong odor of alcohol and observed the driver staring down at the steering wheel after being asked to provide her identification. The driver agreed to perform Filed Sobriety Tests but needed to lean against her vehicle to stand. The driver failed the tests and was taken into custody and administered a Datamaster Test where she registered a .21% level of alcohol. The driver was charged with DUI and transported to the Detention Center.

April 19, 2010 A officer on patrol observed a male subject operating a vehicle on Palm Boulevard. The officer knew that the driver recently had his license revoked due to a drug conviction. The vehicle was stopped and the driver was cited for DUS 2nd offense, and Expired Registration.

April 19, 2010 The Isle of Palms Fire Department requested that the police department respond to assist with a medical call they were on at the intersection of 21st Avenue and Palm Boulevard. A citizen observed the male subject fall flat on his face near the roadway after exiting the beach. The subject was irate that the fire department personnel had called EMS and the police. EMS declined to transport the subject due to his demeanor and intoxicated state. The subject was given the opportunity to call his parents in Mount Pleasant for a ride, but he refused to do so stating he would sleep in his car. He was taken into custody charged with Public Intoxication.

April 21, 2010 An officer stopped a vehicle on the Connector for speeding and while checking the drivers license discovered that the subject was wanted for a drug related charge by the Mount Pleasant Police Department. Once this was confirmed the driver was taken into custody. A Mount Pleasant police officer responded to their location and assumed custody of the driver.

April 22, 2010 An officer stopped a vehicle for speeding on the Connector and after running the drivers license in the computer determined that she was wanted by the Commonwealth of Virginia for Forgery. Virginia authorities advised that they would extradite so the driver was taken into custody and transported to the Detention Center to await extradition.

April 23, 2010 Officers responded to a residence on Chapman Avenue where a domestic dispute had been reported. After speaking to both subjects, it was determined that the dispute had been verbal in nature. Both subjects were separated for the rest of the evening.

April 23, 2010 An officer on patrol of the Front Beach area observed a male subject staggering in the median and attempting to stand still by holding onto a palm tree for balance. It was determined that the subject was intoxicated but the officer walked with the subject in an attempt to locate his friend for a ride home. Once he was unable to locate his friend and unable to indicate which hotel he was staying in he was taken into custody and charged with Public Intoxication.

April 24, 2010 An officer on patrol of the Front Beach observed several subjects walking on Ocean Boulevard with containers of alcohol and stopped to investigate. Since the officer had warned the same subjects on the beach two hours prior about the no alcohol allowed on the beach or street he cited all three with No Alcohol on Beach or Streets.

April 24, 2010 Just after 11 P.M., an officer observed two juvenile subjects carrying coolers walk onto the 33rd Avenue beach access. The officer followed the subjects onto the beach and spoke with both, who stated they were going to party at a nearby house. Other officers were called to the area when more underage subjects were observed on the top deck of the residence in question. Due to the fact that the officer knew alcohol and underage subjects were involved they made entry to the residence and located 14 persons ranging in age from 15 to 20. Located in the area where persons were located were numerous containers of alcohol, which was photographed and destroyed. A quantity of marijuana and drug paraphernalia was also seized and taken as evidence. Three juveniles were identified and later released to their parents charged with Underage Possession of Alcohol. Eleven subjects were also charged with Underage Possession of Alcohol and one with the additional charge of Simple Possession of Marijuana. The residence was vacant and being remodeled and the owner did not wish to pursue charges for the illegal entry into the residence.

April 27, 2010 Officers responded to a residence on 22nd Avenue where a domestic dispute had been reported between mother and adult son. Officers determined that the dispute was over currency that the son had allegedly taken from his mother's purse, which resulted in an altercation between the son and his mother's boyfriend when he attempted to enter the home to retrieve personal property. The matter never rose to a level of violence. The son agreed to leave the residence without further incident.

April 27, 2010 Officers responded to the Connector where a citizen reported that a teenage boy had jumped from the bridge into Hamlin Creek. Fire Department personnel responded and searched the surrounding waterway by boat. The Fire Department requested the assistance of the Coast Guard and Charleston County Rescue. Based on visible evidence it is believed that the subject safely climbed onto a nearby dock and left the area.

April 28, 2010 A female came to the police department to report that she had been sexually assaulted by a male subject on the Isle of Palms in July of 2009, which resulted in an unwanted pregnancy. The victim stated that after a date with a subject who she met on the Internet she ended up passed out after consuming a drink that the suspect had provided. She later awakened feeling dizzy and funny from the drink and believed she was drugged. After giving birth three weeks ago she now decided to report the incident. The suspect lives on the Isle of Palms and is a registered sex offender. Investigators have made contact with the suspect and have obtained a written statement. The Investigators have made arrangements to meet again with the female subject.

April 28, 2010 At the request of the Mount Pleasant Police Department officers went to a residence on 27th Avenue to locate a suspect that had outstanding Arrest Warrants through their agency. At the officers request we also went to a residence on Carolina Boulevard and were unable to locate that suspect as well.

April 28, 2010 An officer stopped a vehicle on 21st Avenue for an equipment violation and while checking the drivers license it was determined that she was wanted by the Mount Pleasant Police Department. One of their officers responded and assumed custody of the subject.

April 28, 2010 An officer on patrol observed a vehicle run a stop sign at Carolina and 7th Avenue destroying the sign and come to a stop in bushes in a nearby yard. The officer immediately went to the driver who appeared to be having some sort of seizure and held his head back to keep his airway clear. A second officer and fire department personnel assisted in removing the now combative subject to a backboard for transport to the hospital. Found in the subject's possession were loose pills that were not prescribed. The subject stated someone had given him the pills. The subject was transported to East Cooper Medical Center for treatment and released to the officer for incarceration charged with DUS and Unlawful Possession of Prescription Medication.

April 30, 2010 All available officers responded to a residence on Cameron Boulevard where the estranged common-law wife of a subject at the residence with their two children threatened her in a telephone conversation stating that he was going to harm the children. The wife immediately contacted the police department. Upon the officers arrival a perimeter was set up around the residence and immediate verbal contact was made with the male suspect, who shortly thereafter came out of the front door and into the yard where he was immediately detained. Other officers entered the residence and removed the two small children. The subject was taken into Emergency Protective Custody and transported to the Medical University of South Carolina where he underwent a psychiatric evaluation. The children were turned over to the maternal grandmother who was waiting at the police department. The mother of the children arrived several hours later from the Rock Hill area.
