Subj.: MONTHLY REPORT for OCTOBER 2010

Date: NOVEMBER 4, 2010

The following is a synopsis of some of the activities of the Isle of Palms Police Department during the month of October 2010.

Patrol

October 3, 2010 A concerned citizen reported a vehicle weaving all over Palm Boulevard then turn onto 14th Avenue toward the Front Beach area. The citizen was able to provide a tag number and description of the vehicle. Officers located the vehicle a short time later in a Front Beach parking space, occupied by an unconscious female subject. The officer attempted to awaken the subject several times by tapping on the window. The subject eventually awakened and when she opened the door the officers immediately detected a strong odor of alcohol. The subject exited the vehicle and had a hard time maintaining her balance. The subject was taken into custody charged with Public Intoxication and Illegal Transport of Legal Liquor due to an open bottle of liquor that was discovered behind the driver's seat.

October 4, 2010 An officer on patrol of the Connector observed a speeding vehicle and turned around to observe the vehicle weaving from side to side and stopped it. The driver had slurred speech, fumbled with paperwork, and was unable to produce proof of insurance. The driver submitted to several Field Sobriety Tests and performed poorly. He was taken into custody and transported and administered a Datamaster Test which resulted in a sample of .13% level of alcohol. The driver was charged with DUI and No Proof of Insurance.

October 5, 2010 An officer responded to a Carolina Boulevard residence to assist Fire Department personnel who were treating a female subject for a possible heart attack. Since the female subject needed to be transported to the hospital the officer made arrangements for the eight year old daughter of the subject to be cared for.

October 5, 2010 Officers responded to the Front Beach in reference to a fight in progress. When the officers arrived, they observed a couple in a heated discussion. Officers separated the two subjects, identified and determined that the female subject was the primary aggressor, but the male subject declined to press charges. Both subjects were advised accordingly and allowed to leave the area with friends.

October 5, 2010 Officers responded to a possible domestic dispute at a Cameron Boulevard residence. Officers met with both parties present, who both stated that they had only been arguing and their neighbor must have overheard them. The wife was escorted to a Front Beach hotel for the rest of the evening in order to avoid further confrontation.

October 6, 2010 Officers provided an escort to the annual parade of fire trucks from the Public Safety Building to Sullivan's Island Fire Department for Fire Prevention Week.

October 7, 2010 An officer on patrol on Palm Boulevard stopped a vehicle for speeding and while speaking to the driver determined that he did not have his wallet in his possession. A computer check of the driver's license confirmed that the driver's license was suspended. The driver was charged with Speeding and DUS 1st offense.

October 14, 2010 Just before midnight, officers responded to a business on JC Long Boulevard where a fight in progress was reported. Upon their arrival, they were advised that the suspect just left in a vehicle, which was located and stopped approximately a block away. A passenger in that vehicle was identified and taken into custody charged with Disorderly Conduct and Open Container. He was in possession of a container of alcohol when stopped.

October 16, 2010 Just before 7 A.M., officers responded to a residence on 27th Avenue where the occupant reported a male subject on her front porch banging on the door. The officers encountered the suspect, still on the porch, who appeared to be under the influence of alcohol. The suspect stated he was visiting from Tennessee and was looking for a friend. After the occupant of the residence confirmed that she did not know the subject he was taken into custody charged with Public Intoxication.

October 17, 2010 Just after 1 A.M., an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle on Palm Boulevard for speeding. After citing the driver for Speeding, the passenger was found to have a suspended license for failure to pay two tickets and was charged with 2 counts of NRVC.

October 17, 2010 After stopping a vehicle on Palm Boulevard for speeding the officer detected a distinct odor of alcohol from within the vehicle while speaking to the driver. The driver provided insurance and registration information but stated that he did not have his license with him. After providing the officer with a false name he was taken into custody when he was positively identified. He had a revoked Virginia driver's license, an active Arrest Warrant from Dare County, North Carolina, and an active Order of Protection Pick-up Order through Charleston County. The Order of Protection was lodged against him by a female passenger in the vehicle with him. He was charged with Speeding, Hindering, Driving Under Suspension, and arrested for the active Violation of the Order of Protection. The female passenger was allowed to leave, but refused after several requests to contact alternate transportation then became argumentative, which resulted in her then being taken into custody charged with Public Intoxication. The male subject had a hold placed on him for the outstanding North Carolina Arrest Warrant to await extradition.

October 17, 2010 An officer responded to a Front Beach condominium complex where a citizen reported a female subject unconscious in the bushes on the property. The officer awakened the subject who was extremely intoxicated to a point where she was unable to provide any coherent information as to where she was staying. As a precaution, she was treated by Fire Department First Responders and was uncooperative with them. The subject was taken into custody and charged with Public Intoxication.

October 22, 2010 Officers responded to a restaurant at the Marina on 41st Avenue where a fight in progress had been reported. The male victim reported that he and a friend were eating dinner when a female subject walked up to their table and asked if she could have her photo taken with them. The victim stated that he took a photo with her camera, when all of a sudden the female's boyfriend appeared wanting to know why they had taken photos of his girlfriend. The boyfriend then grabbed the camera threw it against the wall and assaulted the victim who had been holding the camera. The boyfriend and the female subject were located in the parking lot, where they confirmed the information that had been reported. Since the victim did not wish to prosecute no further action was taken.

October 27, 2010 An officer on patrol on the Connector stopped a vehicle for speeding and ran a computer check of the driver's license and determined that it was suspended. The driver was charged with DUS and Speeding.

October 28, 2010 Officers responded to a JC Long establishment, where management reported that a male subject had destroyed a wooden fence while leaving the premises. A description of the vehicle and driver was broadcast and several minutes later the suspect was seen walking from the area of the previously described vehicle. The subject appeared to be impaired by alcohol and denied driving the vehicle. Since the officer did not see the subject operating the vehicle he was charged with Malicious Damage to Property and transported to the Detention Center.

October 29, 2010 Officers responded to a Cameron Boulevard residence regarding a guest that the occupants wished to leave and be placed on Trespass Notice. There had been an assault, but the victim did not want to prosecute. The Trespass Notice was given to the guest and she departed without further incident.

October 29, 2010 Five Bench Warrants were served on a male subject at the Detention Center for failure to appear at a September Municipal Court date where he was found guilty in his absence. The subjects bail bondsman took custody of the subject and turned him over to the officer at the Detention Center.

October 29, 2010 Officers responded to a Palm Boulevard residence where a subject reported that he found his roommate unconscious with a needle in his arm in the bathroom.
