Comedian “Great Scott”

On Friday, June 15th, Scott Francis aka “Great Scott” performed a comedy magic show at the Isle of Palms Recreation Department that began at 7:30 p.m. This was a good addition to the summer performances as everyone was smiling and laughing during the show and continued to laughter even when the performance had ended. Ads were placed in The Post and Courier, Moultrie News and The Island Eye News to promote the event. More than twenty-seven (27) tickets were sold through the “savvy shopper” section of the Post and Courier. A total of eighty-three (83) tickets were sold and approximately one hundred (100) people attended the event. Children 6 years and younger were admitted free.

Camp Summershine

Camp Summershine is going as planned. The campers have already completed “Movin’ and Groovin’ Week,” “Pirate Week” and “Wild Waters Week.” During “Movin’ and Groovin’ Week,” the campers showed off their dancing moves with a dance party and a trip to Splash Zone. “Pirate Week” campers explored Blackbeard’s Cove and were inspired to make their own pirate flags. During “Wild Waters Week,” the campers enjoyed trips to the South Carolina Aquarium and Splash Zone and ended the week with a huge water balloon day!

Employee Wellness

Participants turning in “Wellness Miles” have increase slightly. Revising the fitness tiers seems to have been a popular move for the employees, plus it gives participants a better opportunity to win a “Wellness Prize”. Twenty-two (22) employees worked out enough in May and June to be qualified for the monthly wellness drawing. All twenty-two (22) participated in ten (10) or more days of fitness. The “Biggest Loser” challenge continues with sixteen (16) employees participating. The monthly winner for the Biggest Loser Challenge will receive a prize of a IOP koozie and a choice of either a Target or Bi-lo gift card. The Biggest Loser in May was Laura McLellan and in June was Christina Willson.

The IOP Community Wellness Fair is schedule for Thursday, September 13th kicking off at 7:00 a.m.
