Subj.: MONTHLY REPORT for JANUARY 2009

Date: FEBRUARY 6, 2009

The following is a synopsis of the activities of the Isle of Palms Police Department during the month of January 2009.

Patrol

January 2, 2009 Officers responded to a reported disturbance at a local establishment where a male subject had refused to pay his bar tab. The officer determined that the subject had also thrown a pen at the waitress when presented the check. The officer located the subject, who appeared to have great difficulty standing and attempting to walk due to his extreme intoxicated state. The subject was placed under arrest and charged with Disorderly Conduct. A companion located later paid the bar tab to eliminate another charge for failure to pay.

January 3, 2009 Just before 1:30 A.M., an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle on the Connector for speeding. The driver admitted to the officer that he had been drinking alcohol on the Isle of Palms, and emitted a strong odor of alcohol during the conversation. The driver agreed to several Field Sobriety Tests, which he failed. He was taken into custody and transported to headquarters to be administered a Datamaster Test, where he registered a .10% level of alcohol in his system. He was charged with DUI and transported to the Detention Center.

January 3, 2009 The Charleston County Detention Center sent a teletype message to the Isle of Palms Police Department regarding an outstanding Arrest Warrant for a subject that had been lodged by the Charleston Police Department. The warrant was for Breach of Trust over $1,000, filed in 2006 after the suspect failed to complete contracted repair work to a boat at the marina in the amount of $3,800. An officer responded to the Detention Center and served the Isle of Palms Arrest Warrant on the subject.

January 4, 2009 An officer responded to a residence on Grand Pavilion Drive regarding a medical assist call with the fire department. A male subject suffering from the effects of failure to take prescribed medication for bi-polar disorder was the cause of the problem. While in the process of being prepared for transport by EMS to a local hospital the subject became aggressive and combative with EMS personnel and had to be restrained. Once restrained the subject was transported without further incident.

January 4, 2009 Just after 2 A.M., an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle after it failed to stop for a stop sign on JC Long Boulevard, then drove over a raised cement median at the Connector and Palm Boulevard. The driver and passenger were allowed to go to a local hotel via taxi and the vehicle was towed for safekeeping. The driver was charged with Reckless Driving.

January 4, 2009 A local restaurant reported money missing from the company safe between closing time the previous evening and this date. A list of those authorized access to the office was provided. The matter has been assigned to an Investigator.

January 5, 2009 Officers responded to a residence on Forest Trail where the complainant reported that her suicidal roommate had just gone into a wooded area across the street with the intention of ending her life. The first officer to respond went into the woods and encountered the female subject in the process of cutting her left wrist with a knife. The officer disarmed the subject, stood on the knife, and held both of the subject's hands until a second officer arrived to assist. The subject was treated on scene and transported by EMS to a local hospital for evaluation.

January 10, 2009 Just after midnight, an officer on patrol on the Connector observed a vehicle cross over the white emergency line several times. Once off of the Connector the vehicle was safely stopped, and while speaking to the driver the officer detected a strong odor of alcohol emitting from the vehicle and the driver to have slurred speech and bloodshot eyes. As soon as the officer requested information the driver stated that she needed to call her lawyer and refused to participate in any Field Sobriety Tests. The driver was transported to headquarters where she again refused to participate in submitting to a Datamaster Test. She was charged with DUI and transported to the Detention Center.

January 10, 2009 Just before 2 A.M., an officer observed a male subject operating a vehicle on Palm Boulevard that he knew had a suspended driver's license as a result of an unpaid traffic ticket. After being taken into custody for driving under suspension a strong odor of alcohol on the subject then initiated a possible DUI investigation. The driver failed several Field Sobriety Tests administered then refused to submit to a Datamaster Test. The driver was charged with DUS, NRVC, and DUI.

January 10, 2009 A resident reported that he had several unauthorized charges on the last two months of credit card statements. It was determined that the charges were for magazine subscriptions. An Investigator has been assigned the case for prosecution.

January 11, 2009 Just before 2 A.M., an officer on patrol of the Connector clocked a vehicle on radar traveling 82 miles per hour. The vehicle was stopped on the Mount Pleasant side of the Connector, where the officer immediately detected a strong odor of alcohol from within the vehicle. The driver submitted to several Field Sobriety Tests, which he failed. He was then transported to headquarters and administered a Datamaster Test where he registered a .17% level of intoxication, and charged with DUI.

January 12, 2009 An Isle of Palms Police Department Investigator arrested a former receptionist for a local Doctor's office and charged her with Forgery for forging the Doctor's signature to at least one prescription. A DHEC Investigator is preparing additional Arrest Warrants for related violations while employed in the office.

January 16, 2009 The Criminal Investigations Division received a telephone call from an Investigator from the Saranac Lake Police Department in Franklin County New York, advising that a male subject wanted by their jurisdiction was residing at an address in Wild Dunes. The subject is wanted for 14 counts of Criminal Possession of a Forged Instrument, 14 counts of Forgery, and Petit Larceny. Isle of Palms Investigators will attempt to locate the subject for extradition to New York. The subject was located and he agreed to voluntarily fly to New York to respond to the charges, rather than face extradition proceedings from the state of South Carolina.

January 16, 2009 A local real estate agent reported that a middle aged couple presented themselves as millionaires and inspected several million dollar homes showing interest in purchasing. The agent stated that as soon as closing on a property was imminent; they would then lose interest in that property. The couple presented the agent with what he believed was a bogus bank paper, which was confirmed to be bogus. It was also determined that the same couple conducted a similar guise on Folly Beach in 2008.

January 17, 2009 Just after 1 A.M., an officer on patrol of the Connector observed a vehicle in front of him accelerate to a speed of 88 miles per hour and stopped the vehicle to investigate. The officer immediately noted slurred speech, slow motions, and a strong odor of alcohol from the driver. After submitting to several Field Sobriety Tests, which the driver failed, she was taken into custody, and transported to the Detention Center to be administered a Datamaster Test. After submitting to a Datamaster Test the driver registered a .21% level of intoxication and was charged with DUI.

January 18, 2009 Officers responded to a Palm Boulevard residence where a domestic dispute had been reported. The male subject present had called to report that his live in girlfriend had been drinking heavily and was attempting to fight with him. The girlfriend agreed to stay at a hotel for the evening and was driven there by the complainant, who had not been drinking.

January 19, 2009 An Isle of Palms police officer accompanied a Mount Pleasant police officer to a residence on 20th Avenue in an attempt to locate a subject wanted by that agency. The wanted subject was not at the residence.

January 19, 2009 Officers responded to a residence on Charleston Boulevard where a female reported an assault that had just taken place. The complainant reported that the male subject had just left the residence in an SUV with friends. The complainant stated that the assault occurred when she attempted to stop her common law husband who was attempting to leave the residence with property that belonged to her and their landlord. He allegedly pushed the complainant to the ground landing on her arm and back. Written statements were obtained from other witnesses present. Attempts were made to locate the subject with negative results. The case has been assigned to an Investigator for possible prosecution.

January 20, 2009 Officers responded to a residence on Palmetto Drive in Wild Dunes, where a domestic dispute had been reported. Officers quickly determined that the dispute was only verbal in nature and both parties involved agreed to stay in separate rooms for the evening then resolve their differences the following day.

January 22, 2009 An officer met with a US Postal Service Special Agent to interview a postal employee accused of stealing two Wal-Mart gift cards from the mail then making fraudulent purchases in North Charleston with them. The postal service will prosecute the subject.

January 23, 2009 An officer responded to a Carolina Boulevard residence, where a vehicle had been reported stolen. The vehicle was last seen parked in the front yard and discovered missing the following morning.

January 23, 2009 Officers responded to a residence on 32nd Avenue where a woman reported that her daughter had stated that she wanted to commit suicide. An investigation revealed that life-threatening messages had been written on the interior walls of the subject's room. Five used syringes were located and recovered by an officer, and EMS responded, and transported the subject to a local hospital for admittance.

January 23, 2009 An officer responded to Mount Pleasant to meet with a Mount Pleasant police officer who had a male subject in custody for an outstanding Isle of Palms Arrest Warrant for Criminal Domestic Violence that was issued after a January 19, 2009 incident. The officer assumed custody and transported the subject to the Detention Center.

January 24, 2009 An officer stopped a vehicle for an equipment violation, then discovered that the driver had a suspended license for failure to pay four traffic tickets. The driver was charged with DUS and four counts of NRVC.

January 25, 2009 Just before 2 A.M., an officer on patrol observed a vehicle leave a gas station and accelerate to a high rate of speed north on Palm Boulevard, then cut someone off at the curve in the road at 21st Avenue and proceed north. The vehicle continued to speed and pass other vehicles until it was stopped on Palm Boulevard near 50th Avenue. The female driver was determined to be a juvenile, who was found to also be in possession of beer. She was taken into custody and charged with Reckless Driving and Minor in Possession of Beer. Due to her age, she was released to the custody of her mother.

January 25, 2009 Officers responded to a reported fight in progress at a front beach establishment. Upon arrival, officers determined that a fight had occurred on private property, and no one wished to press charges. A continuation of this incident caused officers to then respond to a nearby hotel, where the intoxicated girlfriend of the assaulted subject was causing a public disturbance. While being taken into custody the subject passively resisted then began to hyperventilate. She was then taken to a local hospital and ruled fit to be incarcerated. While being transported to the Detention Center, she began to deliberately bang her head on the metal cage. She was lodged at the Detention Center, charged with Disorderly Conduct and Resisting Arrest.

January 31, 2009 Officers responded to a Palm Boulevard residence, where a citizen had reported four male subjects attempting to gain entry. While clearing the residence, two suspects were located in a room, and after completion of the search, two others were also located. Located in plain view in the room with the first two subjects, was a quantity of marijuana. Both were charged with Simple Possession of Marijuana, but since one was determined to be a juvenile, his case will be tried in Family Court. The owner of the residence was notified and a parent responded to assume custody of all four subjects. One subject in the group was related to the owner, but had no key to make entry.
