One person arrived at City Hall in time to submit a proposal, but was given incorrect directions to the proposal opening that made her late to the opening; the City decided to allow the proposal to be considered. After the proposals have been checked for compliance with the Request for Proposal and evaluated, City staff will make a recommendation for contract award to the Ways and Means Committee on Tuesday, June 21st; assuming approval there, the recommendation will go before City Council on Tuesday, June 28th for an award of contract.

Respectfully submitted:
Marie Copeland
City Clerk
